

Unvented Hot Water Systems 1 Day Course (Logic Certification)

Aim

This 1 day course is designed for individuals wishing to install or maintain Unvented Hot Water Systems. Individuals wishing to install solar thermal systems are also required to hold this certificate.

Course Outline

On completion of the course, candidates will have covered;

- Domestic hot water supply
- The history of hot water supply
- Legal requirements for unvented domestic hot water systems
- Controls for unvented domestic hot water systems
- Typical unvented hot water system layout
- Unvented/vented hot water – the differences
- Comparison of systems
- Types of unvented hot water systems
- Categories of types
- Units or packages
- Copper units
- Steel units
- Unvented indirect fired storage heaters
- Unvented direct fired storage heaters
- Installation requirements of unvented hot water systems
- System faults

Day 1 - Training and assessments including practical and multi-choice paperwork assessments

All training material will be provided at the beginning of the course

Price Per Candidate

£130 + VAT plus £35 Certification fee